Channel Differentiation Deepens, with Offline Store Resurgence and High Growth in Snacks & Membership Stores

Online Channels: Dual-line Synergy Drives Growth

- Content E-commerce: New Growth Engine
High-speed growth becomes a new online driver, tapping into new consumer segments.
- Comprehensive E-commerce: The Solid Base
Remains the online basic, ensuring stable core revenue flow.
- Manufacturer Strategy: Dual-line Synergy
Implement "defend the base, seize new growth": Stabilize core revenue via comprehensive platforms while exploring content e-commerce for sustainable expansion.

Offline Channels: Optimizing Advantageous Layout

- Channel Differentiation & Trends
Emerging channels (membership, snacks, O2O) show high growth; traditional supermarkets explore transformation.
- Focus on High-Growth Segments
Capitalize on the resurgence of small stores and specialty channels to capture market share.
- Manufacturer Strategy: Adaptive Optimization
Adjust layout according to channel trends, optimize supply chain, and adapt to changing consumer behavior to consolidate offline presence.

Sephora's Omni-channel Strategy: The Foundation of Success

Unified Customer Profile

Consolidates online, in-store, and app data to create a 360-degree view, forming the cornerstone of personalized service.

Personalized Beauty Experience

Leverages AI/AR tools like 'Virtual Artist' and 'Color IQ' for virtual try-ons and precise shade matching.

Seamless Fulfillment

Offers flexible options like BOPIS (Buy Online, Pick Up In-Store) and same-day delivery for frictionless convenience.

Engaging Loyalty Program

The 'Beauty Insider' program fosters exclusivity and repeat purchases through tiered benefits and early access.

The Seamless Consumer Journey

01 Discovery

Begins with social media, influencer partnerships, and targeted ads to create initial brand awareness.

02 Research

Extensive product research via app/website, using reviews, tutorials, and AR tools for virtual try-ons.

03 Purchase

Flexible channels: in-store for experience, online for convenience, or BOPIS/same-day delivery.

04 Post-Purchase

The membership app unifies purchase records across all channels, consolidating spending to calculate tier, points, and benefits for true omni-channel integration.

05 Advocacy

Building community through Beauty Insider events to turn customers into brand advocates.

Key Takeaways & Best Practices

Customer-Centricity is Paramount

All strategies and technologies should revolve around enhancing the customer experience and making their journey seamless.

Data-Driven Personalization

Leverage customer data to understand preferences, anticipate needs, and deliver highly relevant and personalized interactions.

Technology as an Enabler

Embrace AI, AR, and unified commerce platforms to break down silos and create a truly integrated experience.

CRM campaigns have two main categories: Lifecycle campaigns and MKT campaigns. Lifecycle-related activities include Member Festival, VIP gifting initiatives, and regularly scheduled Member Weeks, etc. MKT campaigns include seasonal communications, new product recommendations, and support for store openings and closings.

CRM conducted 33 campaigns in 2025, and sales contribution reached 39M, major contributed by Platinum Hamper, Member Festival and CNY.

In Bear for VIPs campaign, 2,291 members picked up the bear, of them 201 members participated by upgrading to Gold membership, the # of active Gold members increased by +15% MoM.

For LABUBU 3 round communications for product recommendation, CRM leveraged a combined WeCom and MMS approach to achieve broader reach and more precise targeting.

The optimized registration process encouraged more members to complete their personal information. In 2025, the # of birthday coupons distributed, the redemption rate, and the sales contribution all exceeded the levels of 2024. In 2026, attempts will be made to leverage WeCom upgrades to implement automatic redeem reminders, increasing the redemption rate.

- Birthday gift redemption drove a total sales contribution of 2.5 million on the same day, with an ROI of 3.

Lifecycle Model Design

Growth & Activation Phase

- Auto NPS filling invitation via WeCom
- Auto repurchase coupon reminder via WeCom
- Push scenario-based content such as "Afternoon Tea Inspiration" and "Office Snack Supply".

Decline & Early Warning Phase

- Flag members who have not made a purchase in 30–90 consecutive days, and offer "Exclusive for Old Friends" high-value coupons or limited-edition product trial opportunities.

Acquisition & Onboarding Phase

- Drive traffic through chief table or other media channels.
- Simplify the registration process and use points rewards to encourage users to complete preference information, accumulating key initial data for subsequent personalized operations.

Maturity & Loyalty Phase

- More reward point activities lay the foundation for the point program.
- Link upgrade tasks to spending and engagement behaviors and motivate tier growth through upgrade rewards.
- Exclusive invited event for VIP, like Master Class.

Churn & Reactivation Phase

- During major brand events (e.g., annual promotions), re-engage low-value users as new potential customers.
- For churned members with historically high spending, conduct one-on-one phone follow-ups via dedicated customer service.
